How we differentiate ourselves:

- Identifying preeminent opportunities
  - Professional networks and strategic alliances - Our professional relationships enable us to identify open or upcoming positions not known to the general public or other recruiting firms. Simply put, these hiring managers went to school with us, worked with us, socialize with us, serve on non-profit boards with us, and ultimately trust us.
  - Our brand and reputation - We are known to our networks as the best of the best. The nation's preeminent companies proactively reach out to us to identify the best talent for their needs.
- Serving our candidates
  - Saved time - We work directly with hiring managers and are able to provide our candidates with an "insider's perspective" on companies across the country. We provide you with exposure to career opportunities you would not otherwise see.
  - Career management consultation - We understand your technical skills and partner with you to provide a mix of short and long-term career planning solutions. We also provide our candidates with competitive intelligence including hiring and compensation trends and other talent or organizational developments.
  - Recruitment process consultation - We review your resume and assist with resume construction, share best practices on interviewing techniques and perform "mock interviews", negotiate the best offer on your behalf, and assist with the resignation process.
- Providing personalized service with unmatched results
  - Stronger career progression - Our candidates outpace their peers both in terms of career progression and compensation through partnering with us.
  - Higher percentage of offers - Our candidates receive more offers than candidates conducting their own search or using other search firms.
  - Higher compensation packages - Our candidates' compensation is consistently higher than their peers as a result of partnering with our firm.
